9th District BATS Night Out – July 28, 2010

It's that time of year again for the 9th District BATS Night at Slugger Field. Mark your calendars for Wednesday, July 28th. Tickets are available to 9th District residents on a first-come, first-serve basis until they run out. The tickets are good for one FREE admission, a FREE hot dog and FREE soft drink on July 28th. To reserve tickets online please visit, <http://www.jotform.com/form/82743956949> or you can contact my office directly at 574-1109. Hope to see you there!

Community Music Partnership $$ Available

Are you planning a block party, festival, dance or other event and you want live music? If so, the 9th District has Community Music Partnership funds available to help you pay for live entertainment! We offer non-profit groups a $200 credit for a band to play at your event through the Federation of Musicians. The Community Music Partnership is a joint effort of the Louisville Metro Council and the Louisville Federation of Musicians to provide music to neighborhood organizations, block watch clubs, block parties and senior citizen clubs. Requests for music can be made in writing to my office, 601 W Jefferson Street, 40202. To apply, a letter from your organization must be included stating the nature of the event and its free and open to the public. Also, the organization requesting must be a not-for-profit. Music cannot be used for political activities, church religious activities, nor for the benefit of daycares, public, private or parochial schools. The deadline for this fiscal year is June 30, 2010. For more information call 574-1109.

Crescent Hill Garden Tour – June 5th

Twelve private gardens in Louisville's Crescent Hill will be on display Saturday June 5 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm as part of the 16th annual Crescent Hill Garden Tour. This year's sites range from the formal to the artsy, from gardens designed to fit on a sunny, rocky hillside to a quiet space brimming with shade plants. Watch as a hive of honeybees goes about its business pollinating flowers, and learn how rain barrels can help the environment and your garden. You'll visit an artist's wintertime greenhouse studio structured to awaken the senses, and meet a couple passionate about the environment whose innovations in gardening will have you planning new "green" techniques to practice in your own garden. The event will be held rain or shine. Admission is $10. Tickets may be purchased on the day of the Tour at 205 South Peterson Ave.
